CLEMSON A. & M. COLLEGE

The 1941
TAPS

BY THE CORPS OF CADETS
CLEMSON, SOUTH CAROLINA

CONCERNING THE THEME...

WE, THE CADETS OF CLEMSON A. & M., ARE THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN BROUGHT TOGETHER BY A COMMON INTEREST AND CAUSE. DURING OUR YEARS AT CLEMSON WE ARE DRAWN CLOSER TO EACH OTHER WITH THE BONDS OF FRIENDSHIP AND MUTUAL EXPERIENCE. WE LEARN TO RESPECT AND CHERISH THOSE WHOSE JOB IT IS TO GUIDE US IN THE PATHS OF KNOWLEDGE. CLEMSON'S TRADITIONS AND IDEALS BECOME A PART OF US, COLORING OUR AMBITIONS, GIVING FOCUS TO OUR EFFORTS, UNTIL AT THE END OF FOUR FULL YEARS CERTAIN QUALITIES AND CHARACTERISTICS HAVE BEEN IMBEDDED IN US WHICH WILL NOT FADE WITH TIME, BUT WILL REMAIN THROUGHOUT OUR LIVES, STAMPING US AS CLEMSON MEN. THESE THINGS ARE THOSE WHICH HAVE CONSTITUTED OUR LIFE AT CLEMSON, AND WE HOLD THEM DEAREST IN OUR HEARTS, THEREFORE WE HAVE SELECTED THIS AS THE THEME OF THE '41 "Taps".

DEDICATION...

WE, WHO ARE ENTERING INTO A WORLD
TORN BY TURMOIL, FILLED WITH ECONOMIC UNREST, AND FRAUGHT WITH PERILS TO IN-TERNATIONAL DEMOCRACY, SEE FIT TO DEDI-
CATE THIS, THE '41 "Taps", TO THE MEMBERS
OF THE CLASS WHO ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE
AND STAND FIRM, SEEK NO QUARTER AND ASK NONE, EVERMORE STRIVING TO WREST
OUR FUTURE FROM THE THROES OF ANOTHER DARK AGE.

That noise he detests

A meek little freshman gives him a nudge in his ribs

S. S. S. before breakfast

A CADET'S DAY

Between classes he goes to P. O.—as usual, it belongs to his old lady

He reads it and frowns with disgust upon the Army

But he drills and likes it

What's on at the show? He finds out

He goes to a club meeting after long roll

He has to write that gal

Down to Harcombe's bull pen for EGGS

He takes his daily dozen

Sometimes he meets classes

AT CLEMSON

A little jive before dinner

After dinner he goes to lab

His favorite pastime between lab and retreat

Grade "A" flows freely here, and we don't mean milk

He may find time to study

Little man, you've had a busy day

ISTRATION...

THE PRESIDENT DR. R. F. POOLE

Dr. R. F. Poole . . . who having completed his first year as president of his beloved Alma Mater, looks with strained eye into the future of one of the South's greatest centers of instruction, research, and extension.

He begins a decade . . . aided by the confidence and respect of the entire Cadet Corps. . . . He takes the helm of a great and progressive institution, and from past experience as one of the country's leading agricultural scientists fully realizes the task confronting him. . . .

THE BUSINESS MANAGER

MR. J. C. LITTLEJOHN

AN ORCHID . . .

To the man whose ingenuity and financial guidance has carried the college through all of its business life. A Herculean task mastered only by the best.

Never failing to attend to the most minute details, his guiding hand has advanced student activities and publications to the peak of national recognition and awards and kept them out of the red.

Honorary membership in Blue Key, Tau Beta Pi, Phi Kappa Phi bestowed upon him are only a slight indication of his value to the school and the esteem in which he is held by the Cadet Corps.

ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

Headed by the President, the Administrative Board has supervision over all of the activities of the various departments of the college. Members include the Business Manager, the Commandant, the Treasurer, the Deans of the Schools, the Registrar, the Director of the Extension Division, the College Surgeon, the Librarian, the State Veterinarian, and the Secretary of the Alumni Association.

In immediate charge of the collegiate activities, is the Executive Board, composed of the President, the Commandant, the Deans of the Schools, and the Registrar. This group meets every Wednesday to discuss administrative problems and other matters that concern the welfare of the college work.

In the depths of basement labs, whining motors and testing machines turn to provide long report data for Mechanicals and Civils.

First floor thrills are provided by electricity labs and theory courses in all departments. A well-equipped library as well as faculty offices complete the layout.

Second floor means drawing rooms for all departments including the Civils' classrooms.

Pop's playboys cover the entire top floor with plenty of space provided for all drawing boards and classrooms.

SCHOOL OF TEXTILES

We are the lint-heads and bobbin-dodgers. From the depths of the largest textile school building in the country, we are destined to become leaders in the South's greatest industry.

As Rats we were introduced to the fundamentals of textile machinery and mill operation between shop courses and Little Joe's math.

. . . came the Sophomore year, we learned about Crowfoot, but advanced slowly, accompanied by the strains of crow calls.

Then came our Junior year, where we met disaster from Analysis under Bud, Chemistry under Lindsay, and Floppy in the Engine house.

The Dean took us in hand our final year to teach a little testing. Likewise, we suffered the rapid pace of Speed Demon in Cost Finding and Jacquads by Hally-Hack.

To top the old dip, we feel that this mill grind cannot get the best of us because we are prepared.

Often kidded as a farmer's school for plowhands, the School of Agriculture has long fulfilled the dream of Thomas G. Clemson, to provide an institution for scientific agriculture.

Beginning with Red Ritchie's hog lab and Rosie's Botany, Freshmen often wonder why heredity is so important until Frog takes them in hand and teaches them the facts of life.

Down in the dairy department, Big Ben lectures to his beloved Sophomores, while the Juniors and Seniors learn that ice cream's ingredients involve a thorough knowledge of chemistry as well as milk.

In Bing's economics, humor mixes well with problems as our contemporary explains theories of marketing.

Ag engineers dissect tractors and combines when not buried in designs on rural buildings in the conventional Chick Sale manner.

Phew . . .

Behind ivy encrusted walls, in an atmosphere filled with the essence of sulfur dioxide, and in classrooms and labs worn by the tread of bygone years, we pursue the wonders and mysteries of modern chemistry.

Footsie's lecture room forms the theatre for all Rats to be initiated into the throes of general chemistry.

Sophs lay aside all formalities in signing the school's playboy, Bill, and between jokes, probe the whys of Qual and Quant.

Some reach the Junior year, to encounter Peter's organic and Gee'sology. As a climax, Physical almost proved our Waterloo.

Seniors at last, we divided time between Colloids, Inorganic and Thesis, still hankering for that B.S. in an inevitable, mysterious subject.

SCHOOL OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Practice teachers? We are profs. When we finish we know what we are going to do. After two years of educating the youth of Pickens and Oconee Counties this job of teaching school is a cinch.

Certainly we go to classes. The good Ag boys spend their time around Jucy, Crip, Big Ben and others while the Industrials take Pokey Joe, and Musical Ed in hand to learn just what makes this thing tick.

Physical fitness, essential to mental training

At last here is one rose in the academic thorns—a real school whose final reward consists of Shave-tails' commissions in this man's army and a chance to prove our worth in national defense. There is something about a soldier.

From earnest map readers to able tacticians, we have strove through the intricate mechanisms of the auto rifle, machine gun, howitzer, and mortar. We have studied and practiced combat principles. We have listened to lengthy lectures on military history and law, and last but not least, lived the life of unglorified trainees beneath the Alabama sun of Fort Mac.

Ours is the power and the glory. We are the future defenders of a mighty nation—We are ever mindful of the key to victory, expressed in the words of Bedford Forrest, "He who gets thar fustest with the mostest men."

A SCHOOL YEAR

We salute 1940 as a memorial period in the annals of Clemson College, having seen the presentation and inauguration of new facts, ideas, buildings, and improvements, all conglomerated into a short year.

We returned to school to meet a new president, Dr. Poole.

The Class of 1915 presented us with an amphitheatre with which we graduated the Class of 1940.

Postmaster General James A. Farley dedicated our new post office and shook hands with the Corps, 2,300 strong.

At Presbyterian College, we presented Walter Johnson, dean of Southern athletic coaches, a gift in recognition of his fine sportsmanlike qualities so prevalent during his 25 years of coaching.

We inaugurated an artist's course series, and presented such musical notables as Helen Jepson, U. S. Navy Band, Joseph Knitzer, and others.

Governor Burnet Maybank honored us with a visit, and the Blue Key sponsored a drive to present the school with a statue of its founder, Thomas G. Clemson.

In the army, a quartet of new officers replaced others who were transferred elsewhere, and the annual inspection of the Corps again rated us "Excellent."

SENIOR COUNCIL

STUDENT DISCIPLINARY ORGANIZATION

The Senior Disciplinary Council is a representative committee of eleven members of the Senior class elected by popular vote. The officers of the Senior class are automatically members of the Council, the class President is chairman ex-officio.

The council has a dual purpose:

First, it insures discipline and deals with the problems of the cadets justly and sympathetically.

Second, it is the medium through which the cadet corps petitions to authority.

Since its organization the Senior Council has been of invaluable aid in bringing the administration and the cadet corps closer together.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

. . . It all started back on a hot September day in 1937. We saw, many of us for the first time, a beautiful campus with large buildings giving way to the Blue Ridge Mountains in the background. This was the place where we were to spend four years. We all had to stand in line and matriculate from early that morning 'til late that afternoon, and it wasn't long before we had the short haircut. The scrambles for "NEW BOY" calls will remain as nightmares in our minds. As time passed on, we began to like the place, and our knowledge of Clemson grew along with our hair. They taught us to respect our superior officers, and our admiration grew for such leaders as Francis Bell, Tommy Stafford and others. Classes, day in and day out, kept us busy studying for the next one coming up. There were always those holidays that seemed as if they would never come. During this time we began to love the men of the campus such as Dr. Sikes, Mr. Littlejohn, Colonel Weeks, and a score of others.

We came back the next year, and in our midst were the officers of the Clemson Corps, the Corporals. There were new professors for us to face and also more difficult problems. Professor Goodale with his "dumb sophomores", John Lane marking up his usual set of F-minuses, and the Physics Department in the basement of the main building all spurred us on toward this thing called Education.

GENERAL FOR A DAY

J. S. AND CHARLIE REFIGHT THE CIVIL WAR

Most of us returned for the Junior year with our particular ambitions in mind. We faced the inevitable question of the ring dance, and it was handled by Roy Pearce and the Ring Committee. They gave us a ring that we will be proud to wear. Stan Shurtliff captivated the audience in his portrayal of the hero in "Whistling in the Dark", a Junior Class project.

And then came the Senior year, the most eagerly awaited of all.

Most of us struggled through six long weeks of camp, and all of us breathed a sigh of relief when we heard for the last time, "What's your school, lad?"

Problems were handled well in student activities by such people as DeWitt Ross, Roy Pearce, Bill Awtrey, Ed Ross, Tommy Rutledge, Pinckney Eve, J. S. Mace, Frank Rogers, Wade Carder, George Bonnette, and others.

Jimmie Lever's "Most Interesting College Newspaper" won first place in the state, the "Taps" promises to take its stand among the high ranking yearbooks of the nation under the work and direction of Ed Hallman, and such publications as The Agrarian, Bobbin and Beaker, Blue Key Directory, and others will take their coveted places in their respective fields.

BILL, AL, MAL, AND ROY PLAY BRIDGE

HISTORY

There have been many changes during our stay here. The immortal man that will remain in the minds of so many Clemson men, Dr. Enoch Walter Sikes, retired during our time. Dr. Frank Poole, a capable president and an interesting man, has taken his place. The master of the gridiron and the producer of an All-American back along with a victorious Cotton Bowl team left us. Jess Neely's work was taken over by Frank Howard, and it was done well, being topped by the victorious annual classic with Furman, giving Clemson their undisputed Southern Conference title.

Our love for Clemson has grown, and it is with heavy hearts that we look toward June and graduation.

In passing, we, the members of the class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-one, pledge to give support in an attempt to make a great Clemson grow greater.

ED YOUNG,
'41 Class Historian.

ABOUT JUNIORS

THE JUNIOR YEAR—The age of innocence—They came prepared to work and eager to tread behind the paths of the campus bigwigs . . .

They soon learn—for upon their shoulders falls the brunt of their superior's load. They work and ask no questions.

But the credit doesn't go to them. Instead, some receive their reward—high posts in next year's senior class and chances to work a poor junior stooge.

SOMETIMES WE STUDY!!!

The

Freshmen know little. Sophomores know little more, but pretend they know everything. They are the bane of existence, and are scorned by all Freshmen.

They enter school their sophomore year with one thought in mind—to seek revenge for “discipline” bestowed upon them the year before. They always get it. They, too, are military minded. They work very hard to strut their ability and get in with their First Sergeant. From nutzy N. C. O.’s to knife creases their struggle for stripes is unsurpassed among their fellow underclassmen . . .

LIFE FOR

The best year of one's college career is the first. Usually appreciated too late, nevertheless its memories are never lost.

A Freshman lives a life of servitude. His is an existence only for the benefit of upperclassmen.

RATS IS ROUGH

Regardless of its labors, the Rats enjoy themselves. Their life is one of eternal heckling. Their chief delight lies in sinking superiors regardless of consequences which are inevitable.

ARMY...

He came to Clemson at one of the most critical periods in the peace-time history of the U. S. Army. He has seen his staff of regular army instructors replaced by reserve officers and has stood the brunt of an increased task due to increased emphasis being placed upon R. O. T. C. training as compulsory military training makes its debut.

He is not criticized for his leniency, nor does he exercise Prussian parade-ground tactics. Loved and admired by all, he has won a permanent post in the hearts of all Clemson men who have been under his guidance during the past two years.

Where are your glasses, Major?

Captain Farr inspects a fair drill in first barracks

Spoken of in campus circles as "The Men In Brown", the staff of commissioned officers stationed at Clemson by the Regular Army have more than fulfilled their duties as instructors in Military Science. Despite the frequent changes in the personnel, the corps finds little difficulty in adjusting themselves under new commands.

Serving directly under the Commandant, the officers are valuable in military training and the supervision of discipline in the cadet corps. From them, the cadet officers receive the bulk of their training to pass on to the units under their command.

To be a member of Clemson's Famous Fancy Drill Platoon is an ambition of every underclassman. Every spring prospective members, in the Junior class, are taught the fancy movements and then eliminated down to five squads with one alternate squad. The Platoon has drilled in numerous cities throughout the South and is noted for being the only one of its kind in the nation.

THE HONORARY CADET COLONEL MISS PET DARGAN

At the annual Military Ball presented by Scabbard and Blade in the spring, she was selected by a group of judges to become honorary Cadet Colonel of the brigade.

At the colorful Moonlight parade and the Visitor's Day parade, she ruled in splendor as the pride of the corps.

"HOT TAIL"

To combat a possible German blitzkrieg, the Army introduced new tactics into the curriculum of the Senior Privates and Second Lieutenants. Men replace tanks as men are taught to leap heartily over them in combat. Likewise, they are taught to seize handy objects and chase moving vehicles; hammering their rear in route. It just goes to show you that the Germans aren't so ingenious after all.

Right by bunches

From Reveille to Taps, our problem of what to do is simple. One does not have to think much, someone does that for him. We are told when to get up, when to eat, when to go to classes, and when to study. Even what to do in our spare time.

Explanation? That's simple. The Army.

With our lives dedicated to Old Glory and National Defense, they see fit to prepare us to be capable "Officers and Gentlemen." Thus the rigid army life.

Here we present a pictorial of R. O. T. C. training at Clemson.

A SIX WEEKS' NIGHTMARE

We all agree that Sherman wasn't wrong. In the case of the embryonic Reserve Officers that attended camp, it took six weeks of a torrid Alabama summer to be convinced.

We went, we saw, but we didn't conquer. From dawn to dusk, we observed and practiced the essentials of modern warfare, ever mindful of the strife overseas. We emerged as future defenders of a mighty nation and graduates of a tough school of experience.

For pictorial proof of why we were tired of this man's army, observe the following pages . . .

READY ON THE RIGHT READY ON THE LEFT

From "Ready on the right" to "Ready on the left" we were all "Ready to quit." Shouldering eight and one-half pounds of wood and steel made us believe that the kicks of an army mule came from a Springfield.

Some of us qualified, and even made sharpshooter and expert. Others bolloed and had more fun.

Still you can't beat waving "Maggie's drawers" in the pits.

C CLUB

The wearers of the coveted Block "C", emblematic of achievement in one of Clemson's five major sports, compose the membership of this club and the result is one of the most outstanding clubs on the campus. Such an intimate relationship among the major sports figures at Clemson cannot help but result in continually printing Clemson's name in bolder type on the nation's athletic map.

COACHES

On the shoulders of these men fall the great task of winning ball games. It is only through their constant effort and hard work that Clemson has sprung into the limelight of athletic events. Much praise is in order for Coach Howard and his associates for the splendid job that they have done by winning the Southern Conference Crown in football. This is the first time that this high honor has ever been bestowed upon a South Carolina team.

THE MANAGERS

Clemson's unsung heroes! They are the work-horses of an athletic setup—as essential to success as the team itself.

They sacrifice their free afternoons and vacant periods for the welfare of the team and are esteemed in the eyes of the cadets.

PRE-SEASON TRAINING

Pre-season practice started off with a bang. We had a new and enthusiastic coach, a generous supply of lettermen, and an ambitious bunch of new footballers eager to win a place on the team. The main purpose of the practice was to determine the relative abilities of the candidates, and to attempt to build, out of the mass of material, a winning combination.

Days upon days of hard grinding—calisthenics and limbering-up workouts in light clothes. Then the heavier clothing is donned and many hours are spent hitting the old dummy and making tackles; shins get bruised but muscles get hard and soon the players are in fine form. Now plays must be rehearsed and coordinated so they will click on the field of exhibition which will count toward a well-coached team and victory in any one's language.

TIGERS BEGIN ROLLING

CLEMSON	7	6	19	6	— 38

As seven thousand fans gathered under the sweltering heat at Johnson Field in Clinton to pay tribute to Coach Johnson's silver jubilee and for Coach Howard's debut as Clemson's maneuverer, it witnessed the spectacular might of the Tigers who defeated the inspired but overpowered Blue Stockings, 38-0.

Clemson contemplated before the spellbound crowd that her versatile attack was too great for the Presbyterians as she scored in the opening kick-off to P. C. as the foe fumbled on the very first play, and the Tigers recovered to perform its first play—a reverse from Maness to Floyd. From that moment there was little question as to whom should adorn the superiority. The Tigers were in possession of the ball during most of the game. Her lightning attack along with the unusual passing assail aided her to score once in the second quarter, three times in the third quarter, and again in the last period of the game. Chippy Maness' launching assaults accompanied by Tinsley's spectacular run of 60 yards added brilliant color to the game.

Thus begins the glorious season of the Tigers on the gridiron!!!

TIGERS ROUT TERRIERS

WOFFORD	0	0	0	0	—	0
CLEMSON	6	14	0	6	—	26

In the Tigers' second encounter of the season, they smashed the Wofford Terriers 26-0.

With the same reverse play that clicked in the P. C. game, from Maness to Floyd, the Tigers performed a devastating attack to sweep 64 yards for the first score. This immediately set the spark aglow as the flashy sophomore, Booty Payne, contributed to his debut for a run of 27 yards.

Three touchdowns reeled off in the first half for a 20 to 0 margin, left no wavering of question in the minds of the fans that only by a miracle could this struggling team ever surpass the vicious Tigers whose passing and aerial attack clawed the Terriers. The well-trained eleven of Coach Carson's Terriers showed unreleasing spirit and endeavor throughout the game, but the Clemsonites were just too much for them.

Outstanding playing by Stanford also added to the highlights of the game. Bo-hunked for two years, Stanford, in his final scholastic year, proved his worth by brilliant line bucks and excellent defensive work.

With the tough North Carolina State game next on the schedule, Coach Howard used many reserves against the Terriers.

A TRIO OF PUNT BLOCKERS, FRITTS, BLALOCK, AND TIMMONS, IN THE STATE GAME

WOLVES EASY PREY

NORTH CAROLINA STATE	0	7	0	0	— 7
CLEMSON	13	0	0	13	—26

After a fresh victory over the Wofford Terriers, the roaring Tigers returned to demonstrate their strength in whirling strokes of superiority by defeating the vicious fighting Wolfpack from North Carolina State 26 to 7.

Four touchdowns, two in the first period and two in the last, proved three too many for the lone Wolfpack score, the pass that Dickerson tossed to Huckabee from 30 yards out soon after the second quarter was under way.

Clemson first scored against State within four minutes of the kickoff as the Tigers were penalized 15 yards back to the 30, and from this point started the 70-yard march with which the Pack found itself completely unable to cope.

The ball was snapped; backs, guards, tackles, and ends wound in and out among themselves, and emerged from it with Aubrey Rion literally running over Huckabee on the goal line for the score. Rion then placekicked the extra point and the Tigers commanded a 7 to 0 lead.

A second score followed immediately on the heels of the first as Charlie Timmons, head down, legs churning, smashed over the double lines. Rion on an end run, and Sid Tinsley's plunge from the 5-yard line ended the Tiger's scoring for that game.

DEACONS ARE WALLOPED

CLEMSON0 13 13 13—39

The powerful Clemson Tigers playing a perfect ball game, walloped the Wake Forest Deacons by a huge margin of 39-0. Their strength was demonstrated in whirling, swirling strokes of superiority over the highly heralded Deacons.

So harassed and perplexed were the Deacons by Clemson's remarkable line that they never got closer to the goal than the 40-yard stripe; and then a fumble, precipitated by a reverse tackle, halted a march at the outset when Coach Walker's highly publicized machine spent its fury.

The first thrill came soon after the second period opened, when Payne made five yards at his right end to build up the play that followed in a 51-yard sweep down the field.

Blalock ran around his end position and passed to George Floyd in the end zone for the first touchdown. The crowd went wild, and hardly regained its breath before Chippy Maness intercepted a pass and raced back 40 yards to set the stage for another touchdown. Timmons then plunged seven yards to score.

This game proved to be the most exciting and spectacular to date this season.

In the 38th annual State Fair Classic, Clemson's onrushing Tigers took another step towards an undefeated season in the Southern Conference by downing a hard-fighting Gamecock eleven to a 21-13 win in the fourth game of the season.

It was clearly Clemson from the start when, after two minutes of play, the Tigers took the ball on their own 35 and marched 65 yards for the opening score. That famous reverse from Timmons to Floyd, who skirted around left end for the touchdown, started the victorious Tigers on the rampage.

DOWN AT CAROLINA, THE FAIR CLASSIC SEES ACTION BY BILL HALL AND JOE BLALOCK

The second Tiger touchdown came about midway the second quarter as Blalock came up with his end run and went over the goal line untouched for the score, with Timmons making the extra point. The snarling Tigers again scored after a lateral from Wright to Payne for 15 yards of which "Chippy" Maness later knifed through right tackle for the final tiger's touchdown.

Carolina's first score occurred when Arrowsmith took a punt on his 25, reversed to Grygo coming around his own right side for a 75-yard run. The Gamecocks scored again as Urban intercepted a pass and galloped 64 yards for the final touchdown. The try for the point was good and Clemson's lead was cut to 21-13.

The game ended and into the books went the Tiger's 13th straight win.

GEORGE FLOYD LED BY MARION CRAIG ON AN END JAUNT AGAINST TULANE

IT HAD TO HAPPEN SOME TIME!

TULANE	0	7	0	6	—13

The Temple of Triumph, which Clemson erected with 13 consecutive football victories as one of the nation's towering beacons, was undermined by Tulane's turbulent Green Wave. A 13-0 win was witnessed before 35,000 fans who came to see one of the South's major grid games of the season.

A fourth-down forward pass in the end zone, with less than 30 seconds remaining in the first half, put Tulane in the lead.

In the second half, the Tigers fought desperately to gain possession of the ball, but never did they fully succeed.

During the fourth quarter, Gloden intercepted Maness' flat pass and ran it back 25 yards for Tulane's second touchdown. Blalock blocked the try for extra point, but the Greenies led by 13 to 0 to virtually sew up the ball game.

In this costly defeat, however, two heroes emerged for their outstanding performances; and none received greater glory than Joe Blalock and George Fritts, who gained prestige in their All-Southern bids.

CLEMSON	0	0	0	7 — 7
AUBURN	14	0	7	0 — 21

A sudden blocked punt and two powerful Auburn drives was the spark that led to the defeat of Clemson as Auburn celebrated her 21 to 7 homecoming victory.

During the first quarter, a blocked punt which Williams, a Plainsman, recovered, resulted in the first touchdown. "Dynamite" McGowen's plunge into the center of the line accounted for the second touchdown.

Although Clemson was really never in a strategical position to strike back, it held its ground firmly during the second quarter.

During the middle of the third quarter the Tigers' offensive started clicking, and it looked as though the second half might be dangerous for the Plainsmen. A series of penalties put the ball on Clemson's one-yard line from which Auburn scored its third touchdown with Captain McGowen kicking all the placements.

Payne's sensational leap for a pass from Maness was the Tigers' only score.

Timmons was the main thorn to a brilliant offensive and defensive performance to a losing cause.

TIGER-LYNX COMPROMISE!

CLEMSON	0	6	0	6	—12
SOUTHWESTERN	0	6	0	6	—12

The Tigers battled the Southwestern Lynx to a 12 to 12 tie at their homecoming game.

Both teams fought to a standstill during the first quarter, but plenty of action soon resulted as the Memphis boys relied entirely upon line-driving power for their first touchdown. Clemson soon struck—and two plays later the Tigers scored.

As for the second touchdown, Southwestern again shifted to straight driving football, and Bearden again climbed the pile-up at center to score.

The fast-moving clock signaled one minute to play as Timmons crashed over to score for the Tigers. Hope sprang high for the Bengals to make the conversion that would have won the ball game, but Edwards broke through fast to break up the play.

VICTORY ALONG WITH CROWN!

CLEMSON	0	6	0	7	—13
FURMAN	7	0	0	0	—7

It is definitely decided that no jinx existed between these teams as the Tigers crushed the Furman Purple Hurricane 13-7, and for the first time in the history of any South Carolina team, gained undisputed possession of the Southern Conference crown in addition to winning the state championship for the fourth consecutive year.

Furman took the lead early in the first quarter when Barnett threw a 11-yard pass to Proctor who ran 60 yards for their only touchdown. Hamer converted to give the Hurricanes a 7-0 lead.

During the second quarter, Timmons picked up a fumble and passed perfectly to Blalock in the Furman end zone to score the first Tiger's touchdown. The try for the point was blocked and Furman held a 7-6 lead at the half.

The third quarter was a scoreless period. After the final period was well under way, then came the perfectly executed play that won the ball game when Maness threw a long pass to Blalock who, when hit, lateraled to Aubrey Rion who ran on over for the score.

"ROCK" NORMAN, Coach

THE TIGER CUBS

When Coach "Rock" Norman issued his call for freshman football players, the smallest number in quite a few years responded; but from these boys three scrappy elevens were molded together.

The baby cubs were off to a flying start when they outplayed and out-scored the highly-touted P. C. Hosemen, 25 to 6. Then with a few tough breaks and an unexpected attack, the Furman boys came out on the long end of the score 14 to 0. The Tiger cubs admitted defeat but were not too discouraged to wage a terrific battle against the baby Gamecocks who finally topped them 13 to 7 in the closing moments of the fray.

Next, the Citadel Bullpups, practically unheard of before, gave our boys a 33 to 0 lashing; however, the battle was far closer than the point-score indicated. A fifty to nothing defeat was predicted at the hands of Duke, but with splendid moral support and arduous playing, our boys came out 38 to 12 on the short side.

Despite the losses suffered some of these warriors will no doubt be mainstays in next year's varsity machine, with "Butch" Butler, Dickson, Kennerly, and Robinson being the brightest prospects.

CHIPLEY GOES UP AFTER ONE

The 1940 basketball team reported for its first practice with many new prospects and five letter men—Stanley Lancaster "Dude" Buchanan, Russell Abee, "Dub" Williams, and "Whitey" Graham.

In the opening game of the season, the Tigers lost to the University of Georgia. The following week, William and Mary's fast-breaking offensive proved too much for Clemson, and they lost their first conference game of the season, 60 to 40.

The Tigers finally broke the ice by winning their first game against the University of Maryland, 48 to 34. Coasting along with a 26 to 12 advantage at halftime. Clemson substituted freely in the last period, using an even dozen men in the fray.

The Tigers defeated Furman, 43 to 32. The game was loosely played, and there was wild shooting and passing from both teams. Furman jumped into an early lead and went ahead before Clemson rallied behind shots by Buchanan and Craig to take advantage midway the first half. After that Clemson was never behind.

LANCASTER HANDLES THE BALL SMOOTHLY

Georgia Tech proved too much for the Tigers, handing them a 63 to 51 setback. Tech built up a lead of nine points before Clemson broke the ice, but as the end of the game neared, Tech took advantage of the tiring Clemson lads and rode on to victory.

The Tigers bowled over the N. C. State quintet, 48 to 39. Clemson got off to a quick start and led throughout the game.

George Washington then turned in a 69 to 49 victory over the Tigers. Marion Craig led a counter-offensive in the second half, but the George Washington boys were too good that day.

Trailing by seven points after four minutes of the second half, Wake Forest put on a twelve-point spurt while yielding not a point, and forged ahead to a 42-35 victory over the Tigers.

The Tigers turned on all its powers to overpower Georgia Tech, 52 to 49. Clemson scored first and then Tech went ahead 10-4, but when the game was ten minutes old the score was 14 all. Clemson moved into the front as the second half started, but Georgia Tech gradually came back and with one minute to play, the score was tied again.

Buchanan and Craig, in the over-time period, led off with beautiful field goals, but Craig committed a personal and technical foul on Lewis and the latter made all the tries good. With 30 seconds to go, Chipley scored another basket for the Tigers and won the game.

North Carolina's quintet, led by Glamack, swamped the Tigers 76 to 35.

Clemson's lanky cagers outreached and outscored Furman's hard-fighting Hurricanes, 56 to 36. It was an unusual large crowd who witnessed the Tiger's Buchanan set the pace in the first half and the touted Craig who ran wild in the final semester.

TOSS UP

With 40 seconds to go, it was Fred Lytle who shot the winning foul enabling South Carolina to defeat Clemson 40 to 39.

Clemson jumped to a quick lead, immediately lost it, and regained it during most of the second half. It was nip and tuck during most of the game, and with a minute to play, Buchanan tied the score on the first of two foul shots, and Clemson took the ball out of bounds in preference to a second free throw. Twenty seconds later, Lytle of Carolina was fouled when attempting a shot, and after missing the first charity toss, sank a second to clinch the victory.

As the book goes to press, Clemson stands tenth in the Southern Conference with two teams yet to be played—Wake Forest and The Citadel. The Tigers have a mathematical chance of climbing into the top flight by winning their remaining games.

So ends the Tigers' season on the hardwood. Even though they went through the season rather unimpressively as far as winning games are concerned, the spirit, fight, and willingness of the Tiger basketeters kept the opponents from winning by large margins. Even in defeat, the Tigers and Coach Norman deserve every credit, and with the experienced men that will be available, they should be right at the top of the Conference heap in the future.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE CROWN DEFENDERS

Clemson's boxers, the defending Southern Conference champions, fought only two matches this season—South Carolina and Virginia Tech. Despite the fact that Coach Bob Jones had a number of untrained men to "put thru the ropes" this season, boxing leather flew thick and fast during both of these events.

The defending champions opened their season with a 5 to 3 victory over South Carolina. Two third-round technical knockouts, one by each team, were scored, but the feature bout saw Edgar Ross, Clemson's lightweight, come back from a second round knockdown to land many body blows in decisioning King. Ben Maynard, another Tiger slugger, fought two even rounds with Kanion and then clinched the match for Clemson by battering his opponent into a third round submission.

Other highlight events saw Clemson's middleweight, Clayton Cargill, win over Attaway by a technical knockout; and Beckett decisioned Kirven. Warren Wilson, '40 Conference heavyweight champion, won by default.

Successfully past their initial start of a new season, the Tigers journeyed up to Blacksburg, Virginia, to meet the strong Virginia Tech boxers.

BECKETT HANDS OUT A TERRIFIC RIGHT

Tech's boxing team proved to be dynamite with its big 16-ounce gloves and scored an impressive 7 to 1 victory over the Conference champs. V. P. I. retaliated from last year after the Tigers had defeated them by almost the same score.

The Techmen piled up seven straight wins, taking three of them by technical knockouts and then forfeited the final bout to our Warren Wilson.

Coach Rex Enright of South Carolina cancelled a return bout with the Tigers due to recent injuries of his team.

Then came the annual classic of the year—the tournament. The Citadel boxers advanced only one man through the final round, but built up enough points in the semi-finals to become the new champions of the Southern Conference. Although Clemson's Beckett, Ross, and Maynard lost in the semi-finals, there emerged one of the greatest heavyweights in the history of the Southern Conference—Warren Wilson, Clemson's "Golden Boy."

Wilson had taken a lot of punishment this year not to have entered the ring a single time in actual competition. All bouts in his class were forfeited to him, and his only match of the year was in defense of his heavyweight title in the tournament at Columbia. The highlight of the tournament was the bout between Gates Kimball of U. N. C. and Wilson, and the arena was packed to witness this event. The much anticipated bout ended with a jolt after 35 seconds of the third round, and Wilson was again the Southern Conference heavyweight champion.

During the first rounds it was apparent that both fighters were aware of the other's impressive record and were being accordingly cautious. Every punch that missed its mark whistled, and the fans soon became aware that the boys really meant business.

After a half minute of the third round, the first hard punch of the bout was landed by Wilson to Kimball's jaw. It was several minutes before he could rise, and Wilson had retained his title.

New York and New Jersey ring enthusiasts plan to give Wilson an opportunity to fight professional. A wealthy sportsman has taken an interest in his boxing and plans to finance his boxing career after graduation.

Edgar Ross was outpunched by Andrews of Tech, but it was a close scrap and the Tiger fighter made it much closer than it was expected to be.

Ben Maynard and Gunther of Maryland fought a hard bout with the latter taking a close decision.

Luerick's right glove cut a deep gash over the Tiger's left eye midway the final round, and the referee stopped the fight, giving the decision to the Citadel man. Beckett would have had an equal chance of winning had not the continuous flow of blood caused the referee to end the fight.

Thus ended the boxing season for the Tigers. There have been rumors that the Southern Conference would abandon boxing after this season. Whether or not this proves to be true, Clemson will continue to produce such pugilists as Edgar Ross and Warren Wilson.

AT THE CRACK OF THE GUN

Paced by Captain Banks McFadden, we began the season with a brilliant victory, defeating Presbyterian College by the lopsided score of 103 to 28. Banks personally accounted for 25 of his team's points, taking first place in five events; he led the field in the 120-yard high hurdles, the 220-yard low hurdles, the discus, the broad jump, and the shot put. Outstanding performer for P. C. was Rowls, who cooped first place in both the mile and the half mile events, giving his team their only first places.

We took our first and only setback, falling before Georgia's array of track stars by the score of 69 to 57.

The Tigers made a gallant bid for victory but could not match the efforts of the Bulldog team paced by Captain Fredrickson and Wooten. McFadden, individual high scorer for the Tigers, took first place in the discus and shot put and tied with Cate of Georgia for top honors in the broad jump.

Clemson's only other first place event went to "Whitey" Graham, who won the 440-yard dash.

Our second victory was over Newberry College—99 to 27. Banks again paced the Tigers to victory by accumulating himself 19 of his team's points and receiving individual honors for the meet. McFadden displayed his usual form in the timber topping events, taking both the high and low hurdles in stride. "Mac" also placed first in the broad jump and second and third in the shot and discus respectively.

Clemson defeated Carolina $86\frac{1}{2}$ to $44\frac{1}{2}$ in a very thrilling event.

Banks turned in a brilliant performance, winning first place in the 220 yards and 120 yards high hurdles, the shot put, and the discus; he also placed second in the broad jump. Banks scoring honors amassed a total of 23 points, and in second placed was Little of Carolina with $18\frac{1}{2}$ points.

The biggest thrill of the meet, however, was the brilliant duel between Graham and Carns of Carolina in the 440-yard dash. These two speedsters ran neck and neck for the first laps with Graham putting on a last-lap spurt to take the race by a narrow margin.

At Clinton, South Carolina, 3,000 spectators witnessed the State Intercollegiate Track meet of which the Clemson team, led by Captain Banks McFadden, regained the state title by defeating Carolina 58 to 29.

Records falling before the Tigers included the broad jump, the 220-yard low hurdles, the 120-yard high hurdles, and the pole vault.

McFadden accounted for the first three, leaving his amazing distance of 23 feet, $37\frac{7}{8}$ inches in the broad jump to break the old record held by Little of Carolina. He then galloped the 220-yard low hurdles in 23.9 secs., breaking Folger's record of Clemson, and topped off his record breaking rampage by taking the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.6 secs., again beating Folger's record.

Sharing in the record-breaking glory was Bob Fennel, Tiger's ace pole vaulter, who cleared the bar at 12 feet, $6\frac{5}{8}$ inches to better Curry's record of Clemson.

The Tiger's power was well distributed, which saw them placing in every event, taking seven firsts, two seconds, six thirds, and five fourths.

BLALOCK MAKES ANOTHER HIT

BACK TO THE PITCHER

BASEBALL . . .

Coach Hinson, beginning his second year, as pilot of the Bengal Tigers, carried to Aiken a squad of enthusiastic but questionable candidates for the team of 1940. It was not a surprise that Clemson was hurled back by the strong Baltimore Orioles of the International League who boasted of an infield composed of major league players, and the boys gained invaluable experience in this encounter.

Beginning her first Conference of the year, the Tigers defeated Davidson and during spring holidays, the "Hinsonites" chalked up their second victory of the season by defeating Wofford. The game was raggedly played by both teams, but Clemson was able to overpower her opponent due to superior hitting.

Clemson battled the U. S. C. to a close victory on the Gamecock's field. The game was cinched by Dobson's pinch hit triple with two men on base. Holliday and Jensen did the hurling for the Tiger team.

Clemson continued her bid for honors in the State championship when she downed P. C. on her home diamond. The Tiger team played consistent ball and was able to come through in the pinches while the Blue Hose made numerous errors.

Erskine set the Tigers down on her own diamond for Clemson's first inter-collegiate, and only state, loss of the year. The Tigers collected only three hits while Erskine was only able to connect for two safe knocks. Clemson made a desperate two-run rally in the eighth, but the end of the game found them still on the little end of the score. This was one of the better games of the year despite bad weather and several miscues.

COACH RANDY HINSON

. . . . 1940 SEASON

With Holiday on the mound for the Tigers, the Carolina "Gamecocks" were beaten in a close contest. This was one of the best games of the season, because it brought to light the fine teamwork that Coach Hinson has been molding into his boys all year.

Clemson took a tighter grip on the top notch of the Palmetto baseball race as she thumped Furman on her own diamond.

Playing her second night game of the season, the Tigers opened their series with Citadel by disposing of the Cadets before a gallery of Sumter fans. At the beginning of the fourth inning it appeared as if there might be a loss chalked up for Clemson, but the same old power that had won so many other games soon showed its form, and the Tigers roared on to victory, thus clinching the State championship.

The Tigers would have clinched the Southern Conference Title had not the U. N. C. surprised us and eked us out of the race.

For the final game of the season the Tigers defeated the Davidson "Wild Cats". Holliday turned in a good performance as hurler, allowing seven hits and one free trip to first while fanning six. The Tigers had a good day at bat, frapping out ten hits.

And thus Clemson ended one of its most successful baseball seasons in history, capturing the Palmetto crown and ranking as one of the top-most teams in the Southern Conference.

High praise is in order for Coach Randy Hinson who has contributed much toward the advancement of athletics, particularly baseball, here at Clemson.

SWIMMING TEAM

Under the capable leadership of Co-Captains J. C. McKnight and E. F. Martin, the Tiger tankmen turned in an enviable record last season of which we should be very proud. By virtue of their smashing victory in the State meet during the previous season, no meet was scheduled for this season because of lack of competition. The tankmen also placed third in the South Carolina meet. In the A. A. U. meet, first places were taken in almost every event.

John and Ben McKnight, Hoby Holtzendorff, and Everett Martin should be given special recognition because of the excellent sportsmanship and swimming ability that they displayed.

RIFLE TEAM

Through the untiring efforts of Captain J. S. Mace, manager M. R. Hunter, and the keen interest shown by the members of the team, the finest score in the history of the College was compiled by the 1940 Rifle Team.

Much credit is in order for Major J. V. Sims and his excellent coaching ability.

In the four shoulder-to-shoulder matches, the Clemson riflemen broke even defeating the Greenville Rifle Club and Wofford College; losing only to North Carolina State and the Citadel by very close margins. The team also engaged in numerous postal matches tasting victory in approximately one-half of their encounters.

The Tiger Racquet wielders piloted by Captain Bill Wade, and managed by Howard Burnette, enjoyed a very successful season by winning 14 out of 19 encounters.

Third place was captured by our team in the State Tournament. Burnette and Holtzendorff went to the quarter-finals in doubles, and Holtzendorff reached the quarter-finals in singles. In the Southern tennis tournament the Clemson team defeated two out of three opponents, and during the course of the season Burnette lost only four duel matches, and Holtzendorff five.

Hoke Sloan's voluntary coaching has proved invaluable to the Clemson netmen.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Students at Clemson College are greatly interested in the program of intramural sports. A varied program is offered and a major portion of the student body participates. Constant effort is exerted to get as many students as possible to take an active part.

Through the efforts of Colonel H. M. Pool and Cadet Paul W. McAlister, a senior officer on each company has been appointed to serve as athletic and recreation official. The A. and R. officers form an Intramural Governing Board which maps out the policies and functions of the program. By this method many students acting as team captains, managers, and as players are placed in positions of leadership and responsibility. Physical development, social development, and wholesome recreational habits for leisure time use are some of the benefits derived by every student who participates in intramural activities.

Prospects are bright for the continued growth and expansion of this program due to the keen interest of our new President, Dr. R. F. Poole, who is 100% behind the idea and is anxious to see every student taking an active part. The appointment of the Athletic and Recreation Officers on each company is a great boost for the intramural program and will prove very effective towards enlarging the scope and content of this work.

Publication staffs are not the only people responsible for their achievements. We pause at this time to pay tribute to administration heads and faculty men who through their tireless efforts have ably assisted us in producing this volume.

Mr. Littlejohn, as College Business Manager, is our fairy godmother and guardian angel. Many times have we called upon him. Mr. Joe Sherman, College Publicity Director, has always gone out of his way to give us the latest dope on sports. Mr. Hill, completing his first year as head of student activities, also deserves high praise. Professor John Lane, our one faculty critic, whose role as literary advisor is indispensable.

"The world's best fiction is found in pulp magazines and "Taps".

—John Lane.

We have never questioned the good professor's veracity and having completed this book, we may never.

Speaking collectively, this is our book. We gained these staff posts through earnest efforts and have upheld the same traditions throughout the making of this volume.

We might talk of long nights and breaking dawns, but it is not necessary. Those who have seen us cut classes, miss formations, and get reports and problems in at the latest moment will perhaps understand our situation.

The making of this book was more in our hands than many annuals. From layouts to art work, writeups and photography, all of this was done by us.

However, in taking its place as a college annual, "Taps" becomes property of the Senior Class. May you, as fellow-members of the Class of '41 cherish this volume as we the memories of its making.

Oh, we do not work in these clothes. They serve as a stage setting for our most pleasant diversions.

1941 JUNIOR TAPS STAFF

For time in memoriam, the brunt of laborious work on cadet activities has fallen upon the shoulders of the Juniors, and "Taps" is no exception. One cannot truthfully appreciate the posts on Senior publication staffs unless he has followed closely the life of a Junior staff man.

The "Taps" staff is not political in nature. Its fruits are those of labor and ranking staff men are picked accordingly. The aspirations of these men are such that they spend lengthy hours striving to attain a goal honored by all—when at last they receive just rewards. . . .

IN THE WORKSHOP

To escape from the formality of the staff page, may we pause to give you an idea on what we have done, individually.

Ed, in the editor's seat, was in on everything and still did all of the layouts and art work.

Dick was in charge of the Junior staff and compiled the printer's dummy.

Simp held the purse strings and accounted for our staying out of the red.

Jack took care of rolls, writeups and general printed matter.

Howard was responsible for our advertising section.

Ritzy produced our all-important sports section.

George was top man responsible for our photos.

Ed worked on all feature sections including dances, cadet life, the army, and beauties.

Frank was an able associate to the Business Manager.

Jimmy did likewise on the heavy advertising matter.

Tiger STAFF

The "Tiger" is the official newspaper of the Clemson student body. Published each Thursday, it is distributed to all students in barracks. With more than 7,500 subscribers it has the largest total circulation of any college newspaper in the State.

Competing with newspapers from the other colleges in the South Carolina College Press Association, the "Tiger" was last fall selected as the best college newspaper in South Carolina for the second consecutive year.

There is no course in journalism at Clemson; so, every "Tiger" man is a product of the "Tiger". The senior staff members are in charge of training freshmen and sophomore reporters.

The aim of the "Tiger" is always to "ROAR FOR CLEMSON".

TIGER REPORTORIAL STAFF

The reporters on the "Tiger" staff are freshmen and sophomores serving their apprenticeship. At this job they learn the simple rudiments of journalism and have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the campus personalities and news sources.

The stories when turned in go to the news or feature editor where they are edited and headed, or directed to a rewrite man.

The news editor handles assignments, and checks on news coverage.

The sports staff handles the coverage of campus sports news and intramurals.

The radio editors write the script for and handle the regular weekly radio program "The Tiger takes the air".

IT HAPPENS EVERY WEEK

Publishing the State's largest college newspaper is almost a full time job.

Typewriters begin humming on Sunday night in the "Tiger" office as features and columns are made ready for the linotype operators. Again on Monday afternoon the editors and "stooges" gather and begin pounding out copy as the news of the week unfolds.

Tuesday night and Wednesday are occupied with re-writing, cussing, and "heading-up" the stories of sophomore and freshman reporters.

On Wednesday night the final job of planning the make-up and writing the last minute copy is finished in Anderson at the Independent-Daily Mail plant. Thursday morning the type is set in the forms, the mats rolled and plates cast, and the "Tiger" goes to press. The 7,500 copies are off the press and ready for distribution in about 45 minutes. The circulation staff then goes into action and begins distributing the papers through barracks and to the subscribers.

BEAKER

At a meeting of Iota Chapter of the Phi Psi fraternity at the beginning of first semester of the 1939-40 session, the chapter decided to consider publishing a magazine as an activity for the session.

The purpose of the magazine is to deal with the independence of the textile school and the industry, and to maintain contact between the textile school and the textile school graduates.

The "Bobbin and Beaker" tries to cover all phases of the textile industry. As students, we can write only on general terms, or correlate reading material. Therefore, it is up to the readers in the plants to give us the technical articles that will be the life of the magazine.

Not only does the magazine offer the advertiser a personal contact with the industry, but also contact with the young men who will yield an influence in textiles in the near future.

THE Y. M. C. A.

The "Y", as it is called by all cadets, continues from year to year to do its splendid work here on the Clemson campus. Without the "Y", Clemson would not be the same, for the efforts of Mr. P. B. Holtzendorff and his staff make Clemson a more desirable place to live.

Upon entering the "Y", a person finds three elaborate parlors that are used as club rooms as well as places of lounging for cadets and visitors. On this same floor a newly remodeled auditorium is found that is used as a theatre. Over to the right, a spacious game room is found. Downstairs is a large indoor swimming pool, a basketball court which is used for intramural games, a tea room, and a barber shop. Upstairs are rooms that are occupied by a few members of the faculty as well as by some students who are unable to obtain a room in barracks.

The services of the "Y" are many in number. Free shows are given to the students each Friday and Saturday. Open houses which consist of refreshments and free shows are given to every club and organization at least once each school year. Each organization arranges a program from its own members for this night, and oftentimes quite a bit of talent is uncovered and developed on these occasions. Vesper services are carried on twice each Sunday by prominent guest speakers or deputation teams from other colleges throughout the South. Clemson's own "Y" Deputation Team travels extensively during the course of the school year. Such organizations as the "Y" Cabinet, Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman "Y" councils meet regularly for the betterment of the students toward religious thinking. Evening watch leaders as well as Freshman Forum leaders are organized into groups which do splendid work on the various companies throughout the barracks.

The intramural sports, headed by Mr. Freddie Kirchner, is also a part of the extensive "Y" program. Quite a variety of sports are mapped out by Mr. Kirchner, and more and more students each year are participating in them. This is a cooperative venture assisted by the College Athletic Association and the "Y".

The "Y" also maintains a log cabin about a half mile from the college, located on the Little Seneca River. This cabin is used for outings, meetings, and various other activities of the "Y".

PHI KAPPA PHI is a national honor society organized in 1897 for the purpose of promoting scholarship among American college students. The local chapter was chartered in 1938. Recognizing the equality of all branches of knowledge, it seeks to foster learning in competition with numerous attractive and conflicting interests affecting the modern everyday life of the undergraduate by offering him membership on an equal basis with members of the faculty. Through meetings of the two factors, it aims to promote good feeling and high ideals among students in their personal college relationships. Only those seniors of sound character who rank in scholarship within the top eighth of their class and who have attained a grade ratio of 6.5 or better are eligible for membership.

TAU BETA PI, national honorary engineering fraternity, chartered the South Carolina Alpha chapter at Clemson in 1928. Membership in the organization is based entirely upon scholarship and character.

Tau Beta Pi seeks to recognize those men who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as undergraduate students in the field of engineering, or by their attainments as alumni.

Students who are marked by the Bent of Tau Beta Pi inevitably become the leaders in the engineering world of tomorrow.

When in April, 1927, PHI PSI, national honor textile fraternity, chartered Iota Chapter, Clemson came into possession of its first Greek letter fraternity. Today, while Clemson now has fifteen or more such fraternities, Phi Psi is outstanding in activity, in fellowship, and in well-exhibited interest in the school.

Members of Phi Psi are constantly urged to raise the scholastic standing of the textile school and to preserve and strengthen the bond of mutual professional interest which is the basis of its organization. Phi Psi provides a spirit of unity and common understanding among the textile students who qualify as members.

SIGMA EPSILON

In a school such as Clemson where military life is the order of the day and clannishness is prevalent there is a definite need for organizations that are purely social in their lines of activity. Sigma Epsilon is the outgrowth of such a need. In its members, present and past, there exists a feeling that is not found in other types of organizations.

BETA SIGMA CHI

Beta Sigma Chi has been one of Clemson's most outstanding local social fraternities since its organization in 1933. It was formed to promote a stronger feeling among "low country students". Qualifications for membership are character, personality, and residence within a fifty-mile radius of Charleston.

The Fraternity sponsors a competitive examination in the Charleston County High Schools each spring, the winner of which is awarded a part scholarship to Clemson the following fall. An annual dance is given during the Christmas Holidays, as well as many other social functions.

Headquarters for all types of forensic activity at Clemson is the Calhoun Forensic Society. It is similar to the familiar literary society, but its officers form a council with authority to plan Clemson's participation in inter-collegiate debates or other contests and tournaments.

The past three years have seen Clemson's debate teams in more and more contests with better and better results.

Meetings of the society follow parliamentary procedure since one point in the annual program is to provide education and practice in the proper conduct of business in an assembly.

Membership is open to all cadets who make formal application and receive a two-thirds vote.

The American Society of Civil Engineers is the oldest National Engineering Society in the United States. It was instituted in 1852, for the purpose of advancing engineering and architectural knowledge and practice, maintaining a high professional standard among its members, encouraging fellowship between men of practical science, and establishing a central point of reference and union among its members.

All civil engineering sophomores, junior, and seniors are eligible for membership into the local student chapter. Each year, the Clemson Chapter offers the outstanding graduate in civil engineering the entrance fee to become a junior member of the society.

GLEE CLUB

The Clemson College Glee Club is made up of those men who have singing ability and have a desire to develop that talent by giving their time to singing with the Glee Club. The 1940-41 Club has thirty-five members and is headed by President R. J. Weinheimer, and directed by Mrs. Harold Cochran. The Glee Club makes several tours each year, climaxing their year by singing at the Columbia Musical Festival.

THE JUNGALEERS

ONE OF THE SOUTH'S
 OUTSTANDING COLLEGE ORCHESTRAS

This year, as in past years, the Jungaleers have lived up to their reputation as one of the foremost college orchestras of the South. Not only in the field house, but throughout South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia the name and music of the Jungaleers is quite well known. Too, the name "Jungaleers" is recorded favorably on the books of several steamship companies, for they have played on Atlantic crossings for the past five summers.

COMPANY COMMANDERS CLUB

The Company Commanders Club is the first club of its kind to be formed in the Cadet Corps.

The object of this club is to promote uniformity in the execution of duties of the Company Commanders, and to keep up the high morals and standards of the Clemson College Cadets.

Colonel Poole, Commandant, sponsors this organization. From him the Commanders get advice on different problems confronting the companies.

FIRST SERGEANTS CLUB

This club consists of the first sergeants of each company. They are the highest ranking juniors on their respective companies. Their duties consist of keeping the company records, preparing daily reports, and publishing and announcing all daily details and orders pertaining to the company.

They have closer contact and are more familiar with the personnel of their respective companies than any of the other officers. For this reason it is their duty and aim to bring about a better understanding between the officers and men.

PERSHING RIFLES

In 1892, John J. Pershing established the Varsity Rifles, which in 1894 became the Pershing Rifles. Since its organization it has expanded its boundaries and has become a strong national military organization with chapters throughout the nation.

The primary object of the Pershing Rifles is to create interest and give extra training in the fundamentals of basic drill to students enrolled in the basic R. O. T. C. course. Since its organization two years ago, Company C-4 of the National Society of Pershing Rifles has created much interest and enthusiasm on the campus.

Members are selected upon a basis of competitive drill and elected to membership by vote of the active members.

Clemson is the headquarters of the Fourth Regiment of the national organization.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club is, by profession, a busybody, since its aim is to delve into the intimate problems of nations throughout the world.

Membership is based upon a high grade-point ratio and an interest in international relations.

Club work includes presentation of student papers, joint meeting with the I. R. C.s of other schools, and heated discussion of controversial world topics.

4-H CLUB

The local 4-H Club was founded in 1930, by the boys in school who have previously been members of state 4-H Clubs. The 4-H Club agent at Clemson helped in organizing the club and in keeping up the spirit for which it is noted.

The primary aim of the club is the continuous development of leadership qualities and activities that were started back in the home communities. This is accomplished by conducting programs by taking part in the organization.

DAIRY CLUB

One of Clemson's foremost departmental organizations, the Dairy Club, is an enthusiastic group of students who gather twice monthly to listen to and engage in topics relative to the several dairy industries. Usually the programs are presented alternately by the club members and certain faculty members or distinguished guest speakers.

Founded in 1922 by Professor B. E. Goodale, who has since acted as its adviser, it has been continuously active in affording social contacts, declamatory training, development of cooperative spirit, and associations with technical students of varying advancement of its members.

BROTHER, DON'T LET ME DOWN!

If I ever needed Pep, it's now. This man's school was never designed for sissies—but I'll show 'em (so help me) with the aid of those vitamins B₁ and D in Kellogg's. And I'm glad it's good to eat — as long as I plan to put away several bowl-fuls every day.

PROMPT SERVICE THAT SATISFIES

The 1941 issue of the "TAPS" is the tenth issue of this annual to use Molloy-Made quality workmanship to help to make its cover more enduring, more attractive, and more worth while.

Every annual using a Molloy-Made cover benefits from this quality of workmanship and adds to its success by doing so.

“ . . . and in leaving these things behind us, let us challenge the cadets of the future to keep alive our rich heritage—our traditions, customs, and unwritten laws which mould our growth and development and make each of us proud of the name, a CLEMSON MAN.”

THE PRODUCT . . .

WELL, THAT'S OVER . . .

. . . and we are glad of it, too.

No more will we have to strain over seemingly endless tasks—no more will we have to greet the breaking dawn from the depths of the seventeenth barracks—no more will we have to worry about collecting for your space.

In short, we're through; thank goodness!

BUT . . .

. . . May we pause to express our appreciation to the ones chiefly concerned with making the book what it is. Namely:

Mr. J. C. Littlejohn, college Business Manager and “Taps” guardian angel; Mr. Hamilton Hill, Assistant Business Manager; Mr. Joe Sherman, indispensable in giving us sports information and general adviser; D. L. Grantham and Bob Hufford, whose pictures of cadet life you see throughout the book; Mr. A. H. McWaters of The R. L. Bryan Co., our printer; Mr. Walt Dargen and Miss Helen Morgan of Photo-Process Engraving Co., our engraver; Mr. M. H. Dunbar and Mr. George Barnsdale of Dunbar Studios, our photographers.

WELL ANYWAY, WE'LL SEE YOU IN THE ARMY . . .
